through the eyes of a tiger

EXCELLENCE is the keyword of academic life. To achieve this plateau, one must strive unceasingly toward the ever eluding prize called PERFECTION.

every collegian must be his own keeper, and he must consider members of the staff, faculty, and administration as the wise nestors who guide him in his odyssey toward his baccalaureate degree

the voyage is not always tranquil or easy as one travels in quest of his degree. sometimes problems arise, from the depths of many fanthams, from seas deceptively calm, to plague the traveler.

sometimes it is the endless night of study . . .

*. . . sometimes it
is the harried pace
of travel to and
from the hallowed
halls of learning, the hustle and hassle of the registration lines
. . .*

*. . . and sometimes
the suspicion that assaults his stomach
as he waits for his lunch . . .*

... the apprehension with which he anticipates the posting of quarter grades, or the turbulence of life in peacock or lester or any other dormitory, any student who has matriculated here at savannah state college has experienced at least one such agony.

only the joys of friendships and . . .

. . . the satisfaction or really learning something real and useful keep him moving toward his goal.

foreword

the wealth with which the tiger is endowed here at the college by the sea, bejeweled with intellectual, emotional, and spiritual development, grants him preparation for the full, rich life that awaits him, and a treasure chest full of the fortitude and skill with which he can adorn a life not so full or rich.

a good tiger stalks his prey, at savannah state college, he can consume such toothsome delights as elementary and secondary education, physical education, accounting, business education, business administration, economics, secretarial science, history, english, music, art, foreign language, biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics, medical technology, naval science, social science, sociology, social work, criminal justice, drafting, designing, tailoring, dietetics, electronics, engineering technology, and world religions. with a diet of this magnitude and diversity, one can be made ready to accept the challenge in all facets of life.

here at savannah state college, education is not a myth, but a reality, beautiful and true. this is the "ivy league" as seen through the eyes of a tiger.

michael b. singleton
associate editor

*those of us who are citizens of tigerland keep a watchful eye alert for modes to transmit the ideas, purposes, and ways of savannah state college to those who enter for the first time.
we search continually for channels through which our institution may be a better and more powerful than it is now . . .*

in January, 1908, a young woman named Ethel Hedgeman L'Amour conceived an idea that has now become the pride of many young college women.

From a small nucleus, alpha kappa alpha has grown to more than 4,000 graduate chapters and 100 undergraduate chapters throughout the United States and Liberia.

theta

at the inception of delta sigma theta sorority, inc. in 1913, the founders envisioned an organization of college women devoted to serious endeavors.

these youthful leaders demonstrated a vivid concern for social welfare, academic excellence, cultural enrichment and de-emphasized the social side of sorority life.

delta sigma theta sorority was founded at howard university by a group of undergraduate women dedicated to high intellectual and moral standards among its members, for its own benefit and for that of the larger society in which it existed.

no man is an island. this idea of togetherness and dependence among men also applies to the relationship between men and women. in 1920 the brothers of phi beta sigma decided that instead of adopting a sister organization they would assist in the organization of a new society to be their true eternal and universal sisters. this idea was discussed with miss arlene cleaver who later met with four other young women. they decided to organize a sorority which they hoped would reach college women in all parts of the world who were spartan minded and desired to affiliate with a group which had as its objectives the ideas of service, scholarship and sisterhood, and for its ideal — finer womanhood.

SAVANNAH STATE COLLEGE
STATE COLLEGE BRANCH
SAVANNAH, GEORGIA 31404

OFFICE OF
THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is my sincere hope that the series of photographs recorded here, of the many and varied activities that encompass college life and work, will become a part of your treasured memoirs of your years in pursuit of academic excellence at Savannah State College. Also, fond memories of the relationships established with members of the faculty and staff, and your peers, hopefully, will serve as an incentive to go forward with renewed enthusiasm as you depart from this place to enter the many fields of endeavor in the professional world.

May all of your dreams and aspirations be fulfilled, and "LUX ET VERITAS," translated LIGHT AND TRUTH, serve as a beacon to guide you in the years ahead.

Prince A. Jackson, Jr.
President
